

Walden Planet and Other Stories

By MR Richard Zwicker

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wise-cracking robots, slow-motion bullets, time machines that dont work the way theyre supposed to, evil holograms, androids with brain donors, a truth-telling plague with multicolor symptoms, a man who carries four watches and a bad punch line these are the curious, sometimes disturbing, but always intriguing fantasies of Richard Zwicker, a small-town New England school teacher by day and droll dreamer after dark. In this first collection of Zwickers short stories now available to dreamers everywhere, Walden Planet introduces imagined worlds: A forward-looking adventurer encounters a dimension of people who do everything backwards; a desperate woman travels sideways into a parallel universe to regain what shes lost; a hard-boiled detective finds a phone that can dial the future; a doctor with a conscience considers applicants lined up for a quick n easy memory cleanser; long-distance space haulers battle big-time cabin fever and a tempting cargo; and of course the title storys character: a would-be writer maroons himself on desolate planet because hes read too much Thoreau.Sure, the narrator of a certain, popular space-western TV show...
